CHARLESTON.

MONDAY MORNING, JANUARY 7, 1867. THE MODERN PILGRIMS.

We have not, for some months past, adverted o the numerous letters from the South appear ing in almost every journal, North or West. Your "Special" correspondent is usually so ineffably stupid or common place as to merit any attention; the "Occasional" not much better. There is more freshness and interest in the letters of the tourists, a kind of volunteer correspondence. This class of writers usually display a refreshing verdancy, and even their fictions are more readable than the soporific lucubrations of "Our Special." The South swarmed with these new pilgrims a year ago, and many and curious were the reports sent North. The Nation, a New York Radical sheet months ago are now offered at $30 per month. A of very somniferous proclivities, had long letters every week from the rural parts of the Cotton States. The Tribune, we know, published a number of pious fibs; the Cincinnati Gazette had its vituperative slanders, regularly measured out by the column. The hot weather at last acted as an extinguisher to these luminaries. Like the small-pox, these pilgrims were put to flight by the scorching suns of August. Schoolmarms, missionaries, philanthropists, etc., all returned to more congenial climes.

With the return of winter, however, the pestilence has again set in. Not only preachers, and teachers, missionaries and schoolmarms, but a host of invalids have come to the Sunny South; and we bid them welcome. But we do not think we can be charged with a want of hospitality, when we protest against the jaundiced view these pious ladies and gentlemen reflect in their correspondence. Is it fair that a whole people should be condemned because a few dyspeptics do not find our roadside inns quite up to DELMONICO's? And yet the opinions of these atrabilious travellers are cited by the honorable gentlemen in Congress. We all know the Hon. SUMNER's trick of reading letters, received from friends travelling in the South, going to prove whatever point he wishes to make at the time.

An individual styling himself "Independent Missionary" recently passed through the counthe Legislature, and prints his observations in the Cincinnati Guzette, of Wednesday last. The man is clearly a fanatic, suffering either from from both,-the latter the result of the former. He argues the persistent disloyalty of South Carolina, because a little boy in the street says: "I don't love the Yankee flag. The A negro in Prince George recently attempted to | Confed. flag is my flag, if it is pulled down." steal a house. Availing himself of the absence The "Independent Missionary," we think, was recreant to his duty on that occasion. Why was this boy not arrested, and brought before the purpose of fitting up a domicil elsewhere, was the Grand Jury on a charge of treason? The when the sudden return of the Doctor stopped United States District Court was in session at the time, and the whole affair might have been

Another man in Columbia said to him: "Only one man voted for the Howard Amendment, and he ought to have been kicked out of the House." A man at Nickenson's said: "Allow the negroes to vote and take all the offices? One of the hotel keepers in Memphis prepared Never!" Twaddle like this is here collated by dinner for four hundred persons, and expected the the yard. The "Independent Missionary" gloats on the ruins of the houses, churches and colleges of Columbia. He says: "Columhia is in ruins : God is just, but South Carolina is rebellious still." But enough of this blind fanatic. What delight he would take in comsoubriquet of the "Watch-dog of the Treasury," ing amongst us with an inquisitorial commis-

In the New York Herald, of the 2d, we find a letter from Charleston, from its "special correspondent," giving an account of the recent celebration of the New England Society's anniversary in this city. . He says:

The New England Society of this city celebrated "Forefather's Day" in secret session. Not a member of the press was invited. The Society, in former times, was distinguished for its liberality; and the secret session may be considered as a very fair exponent of that feeling and prejudice against anything Yankee which exists here now, and the knuckling down to the secessionists and anti-constitutional

This is news to us. We were not aware of any coercion brought to bear upon the respected descendants of those honored sires. On the contrary, some of our best citizens have for years been identified with this Society; men A recent Charleston letter in the New York Times, speaking of the election of Hon. J. B. CAMPBELL as United States Senator, mentions the fact of his elevation to this office (notwithstanding his Massachusetts birth) as one of the cheering signs of the times. Either the Herald's or the Times' correspondent must be wide of the truth in his inferences. Verily, it seemeth as if these pilgrims had come here to spy out the nakedness of the land. And when the truth is too nude, they dress it up to suit their fancy, and thus pander to the

THE VAUCLUSE FACTORY.

Intelligence from Augusta (Geo.) reports the destruction of this establishment by fire. The loss of the Vaucluse Factory deserves something more than a simple record of the fact. This establishment was got up by a company in-1833, among whom were the late Hon. GEORGE McDuffie, the late Judge MITCHELL KING, and other prominent South Carolinians. It was an attempt to test the possibility of succeeding in such an enterprise in this part of the world. The company commenced with a capital of about $50,000; but as has been quite common South, its management in its early stages appears to have been unfortunate, and it continued in a weak condition for several years, when it fell into the hands of General JAMES JONES and WM. GREGG, Esq. From that period it began to be a success—the latter gentleman in believe, been reasonably profitable for several years. The mill was of limited size,-we think about two thousand spindles,-and, therefore, could not probably produce as highly successful results as the Graniteville Factory. It has, however, been a great benefit to the region of country about it in giving employment to labor. It occupied a good site for a manufactory. From the known enterprise of its

THE LATEST sensation with the Radical press is the decision by Justice Thompson, of Philadelphia, pany for damages by a negro man, because the conductor of the car had ejected a negro woman—wife of the plaintiff—from the car. I am most happy to be able to state that, having had your Scap theroughly and impartially tried, in the opinion of my housekeeper, an experienced and excellent judge of the article, it is really superior in quality, and well deserving the patronage of the public for its own intrinsic merit. I feel proud, for my part, that such a fine article has been made at home, and assure you that I shall consider it not only a pleasure but a duty of justice, no less than patriotism, to recommend its use within the sphere of my influence.

I am, gentlemen, yours respectfully, [Signed]
REV. C. C. PRENDERGAST.

[From Rev. A. M. WYNN, Pastor Trinity M. E. Church.]

* * After giving it such a thorough and impartial trial, it affords me pleasure to be able to give l', as our candid judgment, that it is as good a Sonp, and will bear comparison with any Soap of its kind that we have used, for all the purposes of a Family Soap. Its being a home manufacture, doubly commonds it to me, and I think ought to do so to all our citizens.

Very truly, yours,

[Signed]
A. M. WYNN.

THE APPLICATION OF BONE PHOSPHATE HA always been beneficial—the only difficulty being to obtain a genuine article. Before offering BAUGHTS PHORPHATE on the rasket the last season, I submitted it for analysis to Professor Shepard, of the South Carolina Medical College, who fully endorsed it, and his opinion has now been verified by actual experiment by our own Planters, whose testimony I have of the superior excellency of this Phosphate, especially in the culture of Cotton, in insuring a good stand.
